Horse Show Gowns and Wraps

THE precedence of Wanawomen is well illustrated by these three specimens of imported Paris dresses, capped by one magnificent wrap for evening wear.

Each one of these is worth coming to see of itself.

1. An imported model in geranium red chiffon over red silk, the chiffon ex-quisitely appliqued all over with silk in floral designs; yoke of shirred chiffon. 2. A Sara Mayer dress of white ground moire silk, with dashes of black satin, the waist trimmed with black lace and white chiffon; the skirt has unique black ostrich feather trimming. 3. An elegant costume by Laferriere, black chiffon-edged ruffles of cream lace over white satin; beautiful handpainted sash of white silk ribbon.

The wrap is a magnificent full-length front, and over shoulders of fox fur. Second Floor.
